

Rocambole Hardneck Varieties

Extremely easy to peel, with deep, earthy, gourmet flavor.

German Red

Vigorous grower, flavor is especially rich and strong

Turban Hardneck Varieties

Striking purple blotching, very early harvest.

Shandong

Has a rich, garlicky flavor with a robust pungency.

Purple Stripe Hardneck Varieties

Decorative cloves make the best, sweetest baked garlic.

Chesnok

Excellent roasting variety with a full-bodied mellow flavor

Duganski

Rich, fiery flavor is followed by a mild, pleasant aftertaste.

Deerfield

A 5-star garlic known for its uniformity, size and flavor.

Persian Star

Rare variety from Uzbekistan with full, mildly spicy flavor.

Garlic

Forget to plant your garlic?

Don't worry, we planted it for you last fall!

Grown by
LOG HOUSE PLANTS

Porcelain Hardneck Variety

Fat satiny bulbs each yield 4-5 huge, robustly flavored cloves.

Georgian Fire

A farm favorite with stunning flavor and cloves. Great for roasting.

German White

A distinctive, moderately spicy flavor that will stand out in any fresh salsa.

Music

A popular baking garlic known for its huge, easy-to-peel cloves & robust flavor

Inchelium

Mild but rich flavor, taste test winner, from Colville Indian Reservation

Nootka Rose

Northwest heirloom from the San Juan Islands makes wonderful roasted garlic

Italian Softneck Varieties

The longest-storing garlics, and beautiful for braids.

Lorz Italian

The perfect choice for those who like their garlic hot and spicy.

Artichoke Softneck Varieties

Very easy to grow, with large bulbs that store well.

Susanville

Generously sized cloves are white-skinned with occasional pink and are great for roasting.

Italian Late

This easy to peel softneck is excellent for cooking