

Rocambole Hardneck Varieties

Extremely easy to peel, with deep, earthy, gourmet flavor.

German Red

Vigorous grower, flavor is especially rich and strong

Spanish Roja

True garlic flavor, excellent for cooking

Turban Hardneck Varieties

Striking purple blotching, very early harvest.

Shandong

Has a rich, garlicky flavor with a robust pungency.

Purple Stripe Hardneck Varieties

Decorative cloves make the best, sweetest baked garlic.

Chesnok

Excellent roasting variety with a full-bodied mellow flavor

Duganski

Rich, fiery flavor is followed by a mild, pleasant aftertaste.

Deerfield

A 5-star garlic known for its uniformity, size and flavor.

Mexican Violette

Popular variety in Mexico with full, mildly spicy flavor.

Georgian Fire

A farm favorite with stunning flavor and cloves. Great for roasting.

Music

A popular baking garlic known for its huge, easy-to-peel cloves & robust flavor

Inchelium

Mild but rich flavor, taste test winner, from Colville Indian Reservation

Italian Late

This easy to peel softneck is excellent for cooking

Garlic

Forget to plant your garlic?

Don't worry, we planted it for you last fall!

Grown by

LOG HOUSE PLANTS

Silverskin Softneck Varieties

The longest-storing garlics, and beautiful for braids.

Western Rose

Sharp garlic flavor makes wonderful roasted garlic

Artichoke Softneck Varieties

Very easy to grow, with large bulbs that store well.

Polish

Maintains its impressive heat, even after cooking or roasting

Susanville

Generously sized cloves are white-skinned with occasional pink and are great for roasting.

Porcelain Hardneck Variety

Fat satiny bulbs each yield 4-5 huge, robustly flavored cloves.